4. English & Art

4.1 Collaborative writing

STEP 1

Choose a woman you admire. Look for information about her. Why is /was she remarkable?

Jane Austen

Jane Austen was an English novelist known primarily for her six major novels. Austen's storylines often explore the dependence of women on marriage in the pursuit of favorable social standing and economic security. Her works critique the typical sensible novels of the second half of the 18th century and are part of the transition to 19th century literary realism.

Her writing was pretty controversial because of her way of humor and social commentary which led to the criticism of critics, scholars and popular audiences alike.

Austen has inspired many critical essays and literary anthologies. Furthermore she made a big impact with her novels being the inspiration of many great movies in modern times.

Jane Austen's most famous novels are Sense and Sensibility, Pride and Prejudice, Persuasion, Mansfield Park, Emma and Northanger Abbey.

STEP 2

Choose one:

- Write a poem or a song to that woman. What would you tell her?
- Write a poem or a song about that woman. What do you want people to know about her?

Poem: “Don't judge if you want to discuss and let Jane Austen decide”

She was smart, she was art, she was a star that now can fly

Many may critique her

But for us her impact was more than just that

She was ahead of her time, she was not what others were like
But you can see now, Austen is pretty much England's favorite part

She wrote many popular books that might be on your bookshelf behind you
You can turn around now and see if you are the luckiest one

She didn't like those sensible novels
But her words can make you feel like grovel

She was a woman, she was the chief, she was the writer that now you read

To finish this, follow my lead, be unique as Jane Austen would have wanted you to be

Don't forget to give it a good title.
